Tip of the Month:

Having trouble with your WIC purchase? Take a picture of the item(s) you're trying to buy, along with the barcode(s), and your receipt. This will help us identify the problem and how to fix it! It is also helpful to tell us the store, date, and time you were there. If possible, ask for manager assistance at the checkout to rule out issues with the cash register. Keep in mind, the store can't force a cash register system to allow WIC payment for foods that come up as not WIC approved.

Tip of the Month:

WIC provides a variety of different milk options based on each individual's nutrition needs. 1 year olds receive whole milk, while women and children age 2 and up receive 1% or skim. If you or your child are lactose intolerant or have a milk allergy, ask us about lactose free and soy options. You can also get a portion of milk substituted for yogurt, cheese and/or tofu!

Make sure to double check what type of milk(s) you have on your shopping list while making selections at the store.

Tip of the Month:

Do you know Wisconsin WIC has an app? You can download it from the Google Play or Apple App store. Search for "Wisconsin MyWIC." You can use the app to view your current and future benefit balance, scan barcodes of food products to find out if they are WIC approved, view upcoming appointments, and find grocery stores that accept WIC near you. Your card can only be used in Wisconsin, so if you're going out of state, make sure to go shopping before or after your trip!

Tip of the Month:

Buying fresh produce? The UPC barcodes on packaged fresh fruits and veggies change often. This means an item may not be in the WIC system and you may have to pay for it unless you ask the cashier to remove it. If you scan fresh fruits and vegetables with the MyWIC app, it may show as not approved. Some stores have "mapped" these products to correct this concern, but you won't know until you check out if it will come off your benefits. The best option is to buy fruits and veggies sold by the piece or pound.
